

University of Nottingham

Institute for Policy and Engagement

A large, detailed image of the dome and upper part of St. James' Church in Nottingham, showing its classical architecture with columns and a clock face on the dome.

Nottingham Engaged 2018

Global Research, Civic Impact

Annual internal conference for:

- researchers and academics with interest or experience of working in the public engagement and policy impact space
- professional staff
supporting policy and public engagement activities

Monday 17 September
Great Hall, Trent Building, University Park

- A variety of First Steps and Next Steps Sessions
- Expert Sessions with On Think Tanks and NCCPE representatives
- Mini Pecha Kuchas

Speakers:

Professor Shearer West

Vice-Chancellor and President, University of Nottingham

Rachel Wolf

founding partner of Public First and adviser to the Prime Minister on Education, Innovation and Science, and Women and Equalities (2015–2016)

Free. Booking required:

policy-and-public-engagement.eventbrite.co.uk